About Our Teachers...

Loretta Scena is a McGown Certified Teacher as well as a fiber and bead artist. She is the current president of the Long Island Guild of Rugcrafting and has taught classes in NY City. In addition to ongoing classes in her home studio, she also teaches at The Art League of Long Island and at ATHA Region 1 South in Litchfield, CT.

Loretta has been hooking since 2000 and loves fine tapestry, whimsical wide cut, and antique primitive hooking. She loves and will teach several different types of hands-on fiber embellishment and mixed media hooking.

Come join this open class where we will learn, share and laugh, and laugh some more while we create something beautiful.

Vivily Powers is a McGown Certified Teacher and owner of Colorama Wool and is a member of the ATHA, McGown, and Nova Scotia guilds. She is the past president of McGown Guild. Her hooked pieces and articles have appeared in Rug Hooking Magazine, ATHA, and the McGown newsletters. She vends and teaches at the ATHA and McGown guild biennials, rug schools, and guilds all over the country. She was recently a judge for Rug Hooking Magazine 'Celebrations' magazine. She is a skilled teacher in a variety of subjects including: florals, fruit, geometrics, orientals, crewel, paisley, folk art, and molas, as well as original designs.

Vivily offers open classes using all designs and cuts, encouraging the beginner, as well challenging the seasoned hooker.

She will work with students' own wool using their color palettes and views in order to bring about a unique finished product.

She is noted for her beautiful custom-dyed wool and color planning expertise. She provides pre-camp and advanced planning communication for the student in order to maximize class time. She shares rug hooking information, demonstrations, and finishing techniques during class and encourages students to listen and participate as she works with individuals during class.

The ultimate goal of the class is geared toward the student going home with a well-planned project and an enthusiasm for finishing the project.

Sarah Guiliani is proficient in fine tapestry and known for her expertise is animals, as well as faces. She can and will teach all cuts and styles. She is also a colorist, designer, and true artist.

Sarah will do custom designs as well. Just send her your picture and size and she will design a piece for you.
